up at once. By Angela Rosemary Wow! And my sis thinks I'm crazy! I'm just lucky I end up with mostly boy cats instead of pregnant felines like this guy. I'm glad I chose to get a pet door so I don't have to clean so many litter boxes, though this led to a tom inviting himself in at night. It can wear out my back just putting food down for 11 cats, 3 times a day. I keep 2 litter boxes for snow days and emergencies but my house is barely big enough for their cat beds, hammocks, cat chairs and cardboard boxes. Some of them prefer to sleep with me and I've had to sleep fully clothed for my protection too, especially when I've had young ones chasing each other at 3 AM. I had to laugh when his cat peed on his space heater and fried it. My boys have a pissing contest every time another cat moves in and they do like to hit those heater vents for maximum perfume. I liked his idea of reincarnating as a cat and looking for a crazy cat guy to take him in and spoil him. I'd like that too! This was a fun read by a clever and caring cat lover. I loved the names he and his cat lady mom came up with. There is an index at the end if you are at a loss as to what to call your next cat, and 12 cat commandments. 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Scoops, Piles Clumps of Wisdom By Rosette We all have heard of "crazy cat ladies". Well, this book describes the adventures, loves and heartbreaks of the "Crazy Cat Guy" - all the cats he has cared for over the years and how he managed to do so with some help from the "Cat Lady", his Mom. I laughed out loud at his physical fitness routine of doing lunges with various weights of kitty litter, and also his defensive sleeping routine of wearing a hat and denim. His musings on ways to find "Mrs. Cat Guy" were also very funny. You don't have to be a "crazy cat lady" or a "crazy cat guy" to enjoy this book. If you live life with a cat or cats you probably will be able to identify with some of his adventures and some of the cat antics in his "12 Commandments of Cathood". Throughout the book the author's love and compassion for the animals shines through. A great book! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Heartwarming Cat Rescue Tales - If You Love Cats This is A Great Read! By Tammy This is a heartwarming collection of cat rescues and the havoc they cause in the lives of a Mother and Son (grown) duo over the years. Easy to read. Lots of chuckles and feel goods at the happy endings for the kitties Mr. Underwood takes under his wing. I liked that I could pick the book up and put it down and read in between appointments, flights and at the local café. If you love cats, you'll love this book. If you don't, you'll be glad Mr. Underwood is there to take them off your hands.

Holiday cats? Disappearing cats? Vagabond cats? Prison cats? Feral cats? Secret cats? Pregnant cats? Injured cats? What do all of these cats have in common? They were all rescued by someone you probably never heard of--a Crazy Cat Guy. Everyone knows about the Crazy Cat Lady, but The Litter Box of Life: Scoops, Piles and Clumps of Wisdom from a Crazy Cat Guy lets you see that you don't have to be a lady to be crazy about cats. This is a compilation of stories that describes a wild journey involving more than one hundred cats over a span of forty years. Readers will discover how a Crazy Cat Guy reacts when he awakens one morning to find the cats are in the furnace, what happens when one slips out the door and the Cat Guy ain't dressed, and the seven words that guarantee Cat Guy will always be single. You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll wonder why, but through it all you'll know--The Crazy Cat Guy loves his cats, and every day it shows. So finish sharpening your claws, settle back on the couch and enter the adventurous and sometimes risky world of a Crazy Cat Guy!

About the Author Charles Underwood, America's Craziest Cat Guy as well as the hardest-working man in cat biz, holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Psychology (ironic, huh?). He has worked as a Librarian in public, academic, and correctional settings, and as a Counselor with inmates and at-risk youth, in addition to numerous other occupations to support his kitties. When he is not writing or playing golf, he can be found in Christiansburg, VA changing litter boxes, opening cans of food, making trips to the vet, riding around in the Catmobile, discussing life with his favorite Cat Lady (his mom), and rescuing kitties in distress.
