Tom Mathews : The New Adventures of Keats and Chapman: A Selection of Improbable Tales before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The New Adventures of Keats and Chapman: A Selection of Improbable Tales:

Mathews has long been an admirer of Flann O'Brien, especially his famous Keats and Chapman sketches. Here he attempts to re-invent the style and wit of the short pieces, with original columns done in the style of O'Brien's sketches. He succeeds wonderfully. Previously printed in Hot Press, each column humorously builds up to a punch line, based on a pun.
