Edward Klein, John LeBoutillier : The Obama Identity: A Novel (Or Is It?) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Obama Identity: A Novel (Or Is It?):

1 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Not very believableBy Robert E. BrownI really don't like Obama as President but this book is quite unbelievable. I really don't like this autor's style of writing. He uses people's full names every time he refers to them when it is not needed. He also makes claims that seem a bit made up. I really don't recommend this particular book.2 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Not a very good book.By JimBobbTRhis was one man's biased opinion and is written solely from that standpoint. I expected some factual information that was grounded in fact. It didn't happen! 0 of 3 people found the following review helpful. The Worst Book I Have Ever Read By Segolily This is without a doubt, the worst book I have ever read. I can't believe I wasted my time on it!!! It doesn't even deserve a star.

WASHINGTON, D.C.-In the summer of 2004, CIA agent Theodore J. Higginbotham III was summoned by his boss to a hush-hush meeting in the basement of the National Museum of Health. "Higgy," his boss whispered in his ear, "the CIA has a top-secret, off-the-books domestic spying operation in which we keep tabs on our most ambitious presidential hopefuls. I want you to do a complete workup on Barack Hussein Obama. Where was he born? Is he a Muslim? Is he a socialist? Who is behind him? And what is Obama's real agenda." THE OBAMA IDENTITY follows Higgy and his team as they travel all over the world-from Chicago to Mombasa to Honolulu to Jakarta and St. Petersburg, Russia-and encounter Birthers and Bushes, Katie Couric and Muslim clerics. Along their hilarious and madcap journey, Higgy and his crack operatives discover startling secrets about the 44th president of the United States-a man some call "The Chosen One" and others refer to as "an Obamanation." Among the many startling revelations in THE OBAMA IDENTITY: * What Obama's Kenyan grandmother says about his birthplace * How a Muslim imam taught young Obama to apologize for America and bow to foreigners * How the Reverend Jeremiah Wright taught Obama to use the TelePromTer * What happened to the videotapes showing Obama high-fiving the Reverend Wright after one of his anti-American sermons * How financier George Soros brought about the collapse of the American economy to help elect Obama * Why Obama blames everything on George W. Bush except Katie Couric's dismal ratings * How the Russians blackmailed Obama into canceling America's anti-missile systems in Eastern Europe * Who came up with the idea of carving Obama's face on Mount Rushmore right next to Abe Lincoln's?

"Dare I say it? Ed Klein and John John LeBoutillier's The Obama Identity is hilarious. And clearly, I'm not the only one who thinks so: I've just gotten a tweet from the DailyKos crowd. They're scheduling a celebratory book-burning party this weekend in DC!

"I can't wait for Hollywood to buy it, and change everything. (Save for the nasty bits about the Tea Party and Sarah Palin, of course. You can be sure those will be in the movie.)

"Anyway, now that Rahm has signed off on the Fatwa, I wish both of you guys good luck and good health with your new names and identities. I hear the FBI safe houses for writers and cartoonists are especially nice in Scottsdale, Arizona."

—Bruce Feirstein, contributing editor, Vanity Fair, and James Bond screenwriter. "I'm part of a fast-growing group of Americans who do not question 'Where was he born?' but ask 'Why was he born?'"

—Legendary advertising executive Jerry Della Femina "BRAVO to Edward Klein and John LeBoutillier on their absolutely brilliant (and VERY perceptive) new satirical farce The Obama Identity ! Klein (a longtime top editor at Newsweek and The New York Times and writer for Vanity Fair and a best-selling author of several Kennedy family biographies) and LeBoutillier (a former U.S congressman and NewsMax.Com columnist and a member of the illustrious Whitney and Vanderbilt clans) are uniquely suited to tell the wild and crazy tale of a preppy (and rather kooky) C.I.A. officer whose life is always intersecting with a fellow named Barack Hussein Obama ("The Chosen One"). From Harvard to Elaine's restaurant in Manhattan to the White House, from Mombasa to Honolulu to Jakarta to London to Teheran and Russia - Klein and LeBoutillier most definitely know the locales and people and social milieus they're writing about and it's a great ride and a great read ! The Obama Identity is rollicking good fun and thought-provoking and I highly recommend it !" - Ray Bertolino, radio talk show host, WHPC 90.3 FM (Long Island, New York)
